Dear Hiring Manager,

This letter is to express my interest in the job posted on your website for a detailed-oriented, software developer. As you'll see, I have many projects that display my hands-on experience efficiently coding websites and applications using programming languages such as JavaScript, Java, C++, Python and show my knowledge in topics such as OOP, System Fundamentals and Analysis of Algorithms. I am currently working on a full-stack applications using technologies such as MongoDB, Express, React and Node.

I am interested in opportunities where I can expand my growing knowledge and build industry-level skills. I am passionate about working with technologies that make people's lives easier. I started falling in love with software development when I discovered I could make my ideas come to life. The idea of creating applications that touch many people in the world is what makes me pursue this career. In addition to my knowledge base, I actively seek out new technologies and stay up-to-date on industry trends and advancements. I've attached a copy of my resume detailing my experience, along with links to websites and applications I've had worked with.

I can be reached anytime via my cell phone, 631-903-7061 or by email at kilincalparslan70@gmail.com.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to speaking with you about this opportunity.

Best regards,

Alparslan Kilinc
